History

Carleton University is unique within the Ontario university system for several reasons. It was founded in 1942 through a community movement, initiated by the YMCA, to provide non-sectarian education for the thousands of men and women who came to Ottawa in support of the war effort. Because of these roots, Carleton has, throughout its history, attempted to meet the needs of the community by making its programs and resources widely available through innovative technologies and life-long learning opportunities.

Today, Carleton stands among the best comprehensive universities in Canada. It is a dynamic, research-intensive university, committed to ensuring an outstanding learning experience for its more than 23,000 students. The University offers 65 programs of study in areas as diverse as public affairs, journalism, art and culture, engineering, high technology, and international studies.

Carleton awarded its first degrees in 1946, three in public administration and three in journalism. Sixty years later, the University has reached another milestone as we celebrate our 100,000th graduate.

Today's Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor General of Canada, on November 15, 1992, as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows:

"Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 78 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: applied science is orange with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; architecture is cerise; architectural studies is cerise with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; humanities is white with a red cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; industrial design is dark cardinal; international business is camel brown with a red cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies and business administration is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; mathematics is hunter green; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; public affairs and policy management is teal with a gold cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The master's and bachelor's gowns, to be worn with the above hoods, are of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The doctoral gown is of full-style, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Music, Science, Engineering, Architecture or Fine Arts is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for the degrees granted by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; venetian pink for the degree of Doctor of Music; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture; and dark cardinal for the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts.

Alumni Park

Weather permitting, today's Convocation reception will be held outdoors in Alumni Park, which was dedicated in 1992 at the initiative of the Carleton University Alumni Association to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. The picturesque fountain pool, lush flower gardens, tall trees, and a spectacular view of the Rideau River make this park a favourite meeting place for students, faculty, and staff, and an excellent location to take commemorative photos.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Marc Garneau, C.C., C.D., B.Sc., Ph.D., LL.D., P.Eng.

Accompanying him on the podium are Margaret Bloodworth, B.A., LL.B., representing the Board of Governors, and David W. Atkinson, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., President and Vice-Chancellor.

David Smith

David Smith, O.C., C.M., M.M.L.J., D.U.

David Smith, business entrepreneur, humanitarian, and advocate for youth, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the 9:30 a.m. ceremony on Wednesday, June 14, "in recognition of an outstanding contribution to improving the lives of people in Ottawa, across Canada, and around the world."

Born in Ottawa to Russian-Jewish immigrant parents, David Smith's early employment, along with his 13 brothers and sisters, was in his father's shoe repair store. Well-known for his commitment to his community and its well being, Smith credits his parents with having instilled in him the gift of giving early in life. His passionate commitment to the various causes has resulted in more than $100 million raised for these organizations. A distinguished businessman whose primary business has been the restaurant and catering industry, Smith counts as one of his proudest achievements the establishment of the David Smith Centre, a youth drug and alcohol treatment centre in Ottawa, the first such centre in the region dedicated to young people between the ages of 13 and 18. His visionary leadership led to the creation of the Ottawa Technical Learning Centre with its "Learn to Earn" training program which serves as the model for programs established in other regions of Canada as well as in countries in west Africa and south Africa, and in Afghanistan.

Wednesday, June 14, 9:30 a.m.

Chancellor Marc Garneau, C.C., C.D., B.Sc., Ph.D., LL.D., P.Eng., presiding.

(The audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives, to remain standing until 'O Canada' has been sung, and at the conclusion of the ceremony to remain until the Academic Procession has left.)

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

*O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux.
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix.
Ton histoire est une épopée,
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

Carleton University Students' Association Honour Award for Service

The Honour Awards for Service are presented annually to graduating students who have served the Carleton University community through their involvement in student government, student associations, athletics, or extracurricular activities for the benefit of all students.

Rathika Sitsabaiesan, a Commerce with a Concentration in Strategic Human Resources Management student, has been selected for a Carleton University Students' Association Honour Award for Service for her extensive contributions to student government at Carleton. This past year Rathika chaired the student-run New University Government (NUG) caucus. Prior to her involvement with NUG, Rathika was the Vice-President Internal of the Carleton University Students' Association and actively involved in the organization of cultural events on campus.

Nelofer Pazira

Nelofer Pazira, B.J., M.A.

Nelofer Pazira, actress, journalist, and filmmaker, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the 2:00 p.m. ceremony on Wednesday, June 14, "in recognition of an outstanding career as a journalist and actress.

Born in India to an Afghan family, Pazira spent her youth in Kabul, Afghanistan, during the Russian occupation. The Pazira family fled to Pakistan when Pazira was 16, immigrating to Canada a year later. In 2001, Pazira co-produced and starred in Kandahar, a fictionalized version of her attempt to return to Afghanistan during the rule of the Taliban. She subsequently produced, directed, and edited, with Paul Jay, the CBC documentary, Return to Kandahar, winning the Donald Brittain Award for best social/political documentary at the 2003 Gemini Awards. Recently she was awarded the 2005 A.D. Dunton Alumni Award of Distinction, Carleton's most prestigious alumni honour. Pazira is the author of A Bed of Red Flowers: In search of my Afghanistan, which won the Drainie-Taylor Biography Prize awarded by the Writers' Trust of Canada. Now a regular contributor to CBC, she is also the founder and chair of the Dyana Afghan Women's Fund, a Canadian charity set up to provide education and skills training for young women in the city of Kandahar.

Wednesday, June 14, 2:00 p.m.

Chancellor Marc Garneau, C.C., C.D., B.Sc., Ph.D., LL.D., P.Eng., presiding.

(The audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives, to remain standing until 'O Canada' has been sung, and at the conclusion of the ceremony to remain until the Academic Procession has left.)

*see next page for wording

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

*O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux.
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix.
Ton histoire est une épopée,
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

Board of Governors Award for Outstanding Community Achievement

The board of Governors has established an award to be known as the Carleton University Board of Governors Award for Outstanding Community Achievement. The award will be issued annually, when merited, to a full-time undergraduate or graduate student, not necessarily in the graduating class.

The award will recognize voluntary involvement in the not-for-profit sector and, as such, is intended primarily to honour non-academic work.

Nnaemeka Ekвосimba is an international student from Nigeria currently studying Law with a Minor in Political Science. Nnaemeka is the coordinator of the Carleton University Students' Association's Race, Ethnicity and Culture Hall (REC HALL). He is also the co-founder of the Carleton University AIDS Awareness Society, a society that has become a viable means of disseminating information on issues relating to HIV/AIDS and how it affects young people. As well, he is among ten youths from across Canada in a United Nations Association in Canada project entitled "It is time to Act: Mobilizing young Canadians around HIV/AIDS."

When he graduates next year, Nnaemeka hopes to pursue the LL.B./M.I.R. program jointly offered by the University of Ottawa and the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs at Carleton University.

Carleton University Students' Association Honour Award for Service

The Honour Awards for Service are presented annually to graduating students who have served the Carleton University community through their involvement in student government, student associations, athletics, or extracurricular activities for the benefit of all students.

Katie Cumby, a Journalism student, has been selected for a Carleton University Students' Association Honour Award for Service based on her involvement in the Residence Life program at Carleton and her active involvement with local Ottawa charities. Katie has volunteered with the Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa, the Ottawa Humane Society, and the Hopewell Eating Disorders Support Centre. Katie has also assisted new students with the transition to university life as a Residence Fellow and as a Residence Programming Assistant.
